William “Barrie” Cunningham is a world-class entertainer, producer, and one of the pioneers of the modern tribute concert experience. With a career spanning decades and more than three million fans worldwide, Barrie has become a trusted name in theatres, casino showrooms, festivals, and high-profile corporate events.

Best known for his signature production, Adventures in Parrotise – A Tribute to Jimmy Buffett, Barrie delivers more than a concert—it’s a full-scale island party experience that captures the spirit, storytelling, and laid-back energy of Buffett’s music. From “Margaritaville” to “Come Monday,” audiences are transported to a tropical escape where the good times roll and the singalongs never stop.

A veteran of over 300 performances per year at the height of his touring career, Barrie has headlined premier venues across the U.S. and internationally, including appearances at the National Governors’ Convention, major luxury resorts, and global corporate events. In 2008, he was honored to perform at the opening of the American Embassy at the historic Brandenburg Gate in Berlin.

Barrie’s roots trace back to his early days performing folk music in coffeehouses across the country, followed by success in Southern California with the rockabilly group Black Slacks. His career includes accolades such as Entertainer of the Year in San Diego and starring roles in productions voted Show of the Year in Las Vegas, Reno, Biloxi and Berlin.

A trailblazer in the tribute industry, Barrie was a featured headliner in internationally renowned productions including Legends in Concert, American Superstars, and Stars in Concert (Europe)—where he became known as one of the premier Jimmy Buffett and Neil Diamond tribute artists.

His productions, including Adventures in Parrotise and Hot August Nights, were among the first tribute shows to secure residency in a major Las Vegas casino showroom.

In addition to performing, Barrie is an accomplished producer and entertainment executive. He has created and operated successful theatre productions in markets such as Las Vegas, Branson, Missouri and Myrtle Beach, South Carolina. His experience spans talent buying, show production, and venue operations—making him a valued partner for buyers and venues alike.
